

ARIZONA CAPITOL MUSEUM

LUNCH BUNCH

Wednesday, February 22, 2006 (Note Day Change)

Writer, Toni McClory, discusses her book, Understanding the Arizona Constitution, a favorite among those who follow the legislative process.

Wednesday, March 15, 2006

Julian Reveles, a Phoenix native and film historian, shares photos and remembers old movie theaters in the Valley.

Wednesday, April 12, 2006

Trudy Griffin-Pierce is the author of Native American Peoples of the Southwest. Her presentation addresses what happened to the Chiricahua Apaches after surrender in 1886 and their survival.

Wednesday, May 17, 2006

Robert A. Trennert's combined slide-lecture presentation focuses on Route 66, including why it was established, its abandonment, and impact on Arizona communities. Sponsored by the Arizona Humanities Council.

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE ARIZONA CAPITOL MUSEUM
GUILD MEETING AFTER THE PRESENTATIONS

BRING YOUR LUNCH

Time: 12:15 – 1:00 PM

Location: Arizona Capitol Museum Visitors' Lounge, 1st Floor

Free parking in Wesley Bolin Plaza parking lot, across 17th Avenue

www.lib.az.us/museum
602.364.0306

Free Admission

Arizona State Library, Archives and Public Records
1700 W. Washington | Phoenix | Arizona | 85007
(602) 542-4675 | www.lib.az.us

PROVIDING ACCESS
*Preserving
Arizona*

